KATIKATI SQUASH RACKETS CLUB INCORPORATED (No. 21243) has applied for an On-site Special Licence in respect of premises situated at 6 Wharawhara Road, Katikati, known as KATIKATI SQUASH RACKETS CLUB INCORPORATED. The planned event is planned to take place on 10th July 2026 between 10.00a.m. through to 01.00am the following day.

THE REASON FOR THE DECISION

The Medical Officer of Health initially opposed the application but after reviewing the applicant's correspondence and given the applicant has agreed to reduce the originally proposed operating hours with the intent is to lessen the potential harm associated with alcohol being available over extended hours, the Ministry has withdrawn its opposition.

The applicant is a holder of a Club Licence and held similar events in the past.

In the absence of the Inspector's availability to report, a senior member of the Western Bay of Plenty Council, familiar with the requirements of the Liquor Act, has reviewed all relevant matters pertaining to this application, and given that neither of the reporting agencies now oppose the application, has reported the application now meets the requirements of the Act.

The applicant has been reminded that a minimum of 2 low alcohol beverages should be available, and food of a substantial nature must be available at all times alcohol is for sale and consumption.
