

1. The future utility right is to be maintained for future network utilities to reticulate after subdivisions are complete. Other services can cross by right but approval from the Council is necessary before any structure is erected thereon.
2. If a network work utility is not laid at time of subdivision then a service corridor in the standard position shall be provided.

