CS9 – Network Utilities

Contents

CS9
Network Utilities................................................................................................................................. 2
9.1  Scope...................................................................................................................................... 2
9.2  Definitions ............................................................................................................................... 2
9.3  Related Documents ................................................................................................................ 2
9.4  Materials ................................................................................................................................. 2
9.5  General ................................................................................................................................... 2
9.1 Scope

This section sets out the technical specification for the construction of network Utilities, whether as part of a subdivision development or as part of Council’s work programme.

9.2 Definitions

Definitions are set out in Section 1 of the Development Code: Design, unless otherwise described.

9.3 Related Documents

The following Drawings and other documents form part of this contract Document as listed:

Design Standard DS9: Network Utilities
Drawing Number: ………………………….. Name: ……………………………………………………………
Construction Standards
CS 2: Streetscape
CS 4: Transportation
CS 5: Stormwater
CS 6: Waste water
CS 10 Natural Hazard and Earthworks

9.4 Materials

Materials shall be as listed in the appropriate section of the Development Code: Construction, or as defined in this document.

Ducting: Shall be green telecom ducting.

9.5 General

The work under this section is covered by other sections of technical specifications as follow:

- Topsoiling and grassing, shall be as per CS 2 Streetscaping
- Aspects of transportation shall be as CS 4 Transportation
- Drainage shall be as per CS 6 and CS 5 Wastewater and Stormwater Pipe Systems.
- Earthworks shall be as per CS 10 Natural Hazards & Earthworks

Electricity Telecom and Gas utilities shall also be constructed in accordance with their respective industry best practice documentation.